

The Berry Bulletin

July, 2010

Dear Prayer Partners:

I want to take this time to thank you all for your dedication and commitment to pray for our family, ministry and our country over the past few years. I can't believe that our time in Uganda is coming to an end, just 4 more weeks! This time is bittersweet, as we say goodbye to those who feel like family and anxiously wait to love on our family in America.

It has been so amazing to watch God at work not only in the lives of those we minister to, but in our very own as well. We have had the honor to sit in the "front row" of this adventure that God has our family on. WHAT A RIDE!! There have been many highs and lows, but He has been with us through it all. I think I can speak for our entire family when I say how humbled we are to be on this adventure. And, we look forward to the next chapter . . .

Our next adventure starts in January, 2011 in Madagascar! I look forward to sharing with you during our US visits on just how God led us there. Our prayers are with the personnel already there and for the hearts & minds of those we will work with and minister too! Our hearts already feel connected to the people of the island. Please start to pray for the people, our ministry and our new language!

So, as we continue to pack up and say goodbye, please remember that we love each of you and look forward to seeing you in the States. Again, thank you for your commitment to pray for us as we move forward with you into new ministry and new adventures!

Prayer Requests:

1. That God will bless our remaining time in Uganda with sweet fellowship with team & sweet goodbyes with our Ugandan family.
2. Safe travel from Uganda to Virginia, we only have a one hour layover in London, pray we make our connecting flight!!
3. Good health in our final weeks here and while in Virginia, our bodies won't be used to Virginia winter :o)
4. Praise God for a successful first year of homeschool! Walker and Delaney successfully completed 3rd & 5th grades.

Love & Blessings,
Christina for the Berry's